MEMORANDUM FOR: Special Assistant, DDO
Executive Officer, DDA
Executive Assistant, DDI
Executive Assistant, DDS&T

FROM: [REDACTED], Chief
Printing & Photography Division,
Office of Logistics

SUBJECT: Operational Printing and Photographic Support

1. In response to senior Agency management guidance, it is requested that you identify each officer at the Division management level (DO Branch) who is authorized to requisition printing or photographic support from the Office of Logistics, Printing and Photography Division in support of an operational program/project. Henceforth, all requisitions for such support must be signed by the Division (DO Branch) Chief and must clearly state that the requisition is in support of a specific named operation. The Office of Logistics, Printing and Photography Division will maintain a register of such officers and of the operational requisitions forwarded. It will be the component's responsibility to forward name changes as they occur.

2. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please contact me on [REDACTED]

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
VIA: Executive Director
FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration
SUBJECT: Operational Printing Support

1. In response to your concern for positive control over printing support for Agency operational programs, I have directed that all requisitions for printing and photographic support of operational projects must be executed by officers at the division (DO branch) level, and the requisition must clearly indicate that it is for an operational requirement.

2. Each directorate has been requested to forward the name and title of each responsible officer to the Office of Logistics, Printing and Photography Division. That Division will maintain a register of such officers and of the operational requisitions forwarded by them.

Harry:

Suggest a copy of this be sent to DDCI
with note: "Ref your memo to DDO and DDS&T
15 Jan 85, Subject: Authorization for Printing.
Although P&PD has required a requisition signed by a responsible officer for all printing requests, the attached will tighten up and require sign off by specifically designated officers on all operational material henceforth. Harry"

SUBJECT: Validation of DO Operational Printing Requirements

REFERENCE: Memo for DDO and DDS&T fm DDCI, dtd 15 Jan 85,
Same Subject

The DO and OTS have taken steps to ensure that in the future OTS will not act upon informal or verbal requests to print materials for operational use. OTS is now drafting a DOI specifying that requests for printing support must be in written form and must be signed by a DO Officer at Branch Chief level or above. Pending the coordination and issuance of this DOI, the Chief of OTS' Graphics and Authentication Division will not commence work on DO requests for printing until a written, validated request is received from a DO Officer at the appropriate level.
